Generation Z - Technology

Generation Z's nickname is 'digital natives.' The reason for this is because they are so obsessed with the internet, computers, iPod's and mobile phones.

The internet has become a worldwide obsession. Every single piece of technology has the internet on it. People have become addicted to Facebook with over 230,000,000 users. Msn (Windows live messenger) is also very popular and Twitter is the new global sensation. People go on and update their statues and follow people. Celebrities who use twitter include Matthew Perry (@langford-perry), Leighton Meester (@itmeighten), Justin Bieber (@justinbieber), Ashton Kutcher (@aplusk), Kim Kardashian (@KimKardashian), Mika (@mikasounds), Neil Patrick Harris (@ActuallyNPH) and many more. Formspring is also a very new trend. You can ask people questions and people can ask you some. You can be anonymous or you can put your name.

Apple Technology:

Apple has been around since 1976 and was called apple computer but removed computer to just be called apple in 2007. The first iPod (iPod classic) was released in October 2001. There have been many iPods and now the iPhone. There have been many generations of iPods and now the 5th generation iPod nano and 3rd generation iPod touch. There is also the new iPad. It is an iPod touch but bigger. There are also computer and laptops mac and macbook air. iPods are very popular because they are easy to listen to and they are portable. The new iPod shuffle is the smallest iPod which has come out and looks like a battery. Which iPod is your favourite iPod? Let us know and drop us a msg in our student voice box at the front of the Year 7 office.

Injuries

Chris Masten was playing a tremendous game until he fell onto his knee and walked off limping in the second quarter. Masten hasn't had scans yet but will be out for a couple weeks. Hopefully it is only a minor injury so he can only have a couple weeks of.

Matthew Scarlett will be playing against the Sydney Swans this weekend. Scarlett has not played since his injuring his back against Hawthorn in round two. Scarlett has fully recovered his back injury and will be ready for Sydney's new recruit Daniel Bradshaw.

Weird Sports By Matt Tabain

Chess Boxing

This is a combination of chess and boxing techniques involved in one single game that brings the power of the brain as well as brawn into the same board. Boxing and chess are alternated with every round in this game.

Rules

- A match must consist up to eleven alternating rounds of boxing and chess.
- The match begins with a 4 minute chess round.
- There is a one minute break in between each round.
- Competitors may win by knockout or achieving a knockout.
- If the competitor fails to make a move in the chess round, he is warned and must move in 10 seconds.
- Repeated warnings may fall into a disqualification.

Bossaball

Bossaball was first introduced in Spain by the Belgian Filip Eyckmans. It is very similar to volleyball but also includes elements of soccer and gymnastics. Each side of the court has an integrated trampoline, allowing players to bounce high enough to spike the ball, and a number of inflatable barriers. Bossaball is played in a number of countries such as Brazil, Germany, Netherlands, Spain, Portugal, Romania, Singapore, Ecuador and Saudi Arabia.

Rules

- Each team consists of 3 – 5 players.
- One Player is placed on the tramp while the rest of the players are placed on the Inflatable Barriers.
- When serving you may kick or throw the ball to make a successful serve.
- You may only use a combination of 8 or less passers to each other before you return the ball over the net.
- You may toss the ball to your attacker on the tramp while in a rally.
- Attacker must stay in the tramp at all times.
- If the ball touches the court it is one point top the other side.
- Three points are assigned for scoring on the tramp.
- If the team gets a score when not serving all players must rotate their positions on the court.
- You must score 25 points to win and be two points ahead to be awarded the set.
- Three Sets are played in one match.

Movies By Liam Philp

Alice in Wonderland ★★★★★

"Alice in Wonderland, a magical and imaginative twist on some of the most beloved stories of all time. The best family movie" 19 year old Alice returns to the weird world of wonderland the same magical world she first encountered as a young girl. Alice along with friends from the past the white rabbit, Tweedledee and Tweedledum, the Dormouse, the Caterpillar, the Cheshire Cat and of course the Mad Hatter embarks on a fantastical journey to find her true destiny and end the Red Queen's reign of terror.

The Bounty Hunter ★★★★★

"a Funny and weird way to met for the first time...again"

Green Zone ★★★★★

"a cool movie about agents and weapons of mass destruction"

The Hurt Locker ★★★★★

"an action packet war film from start to finish"

The Last Song ★★★★★

"a really sad love story that will make you cry"

XBOX 360 PS3 Wii

Since Sega super stars tennis was realest on the market, sonic and other Sega game characters have had nothing better to do. Until they learned to drive karts that is!!! Manly a twin clone of Mario kart Wii it has the same sort of power-ups to rid you of the competition. With all of the Sega characters to drive and race you, you will just have the urge to just try them all until you get the feel of every nook and cranny till you know where the short cuts are and also play with your eyes closed. This will take you at least 5-6 hours of play.

7.5/10

Wii

For the Wii it has pretty good graphics and it can be a very enjoyable game. But battles with monsters can be very difficult because monsters can be extremely high levels. This game can be very difficult to control unless you have the Nintendo 64 controller.

6.5/10

 Game for Wii

For the PC, it has the same mechanics as the Diablo series, the one down fall for this game is the lack of the online multiplayer. There is a rumour that the creators are making a MMO set in the torchlight universe. There is a lot of loot collect and that can be a really big problem but you have a pet that can hold and sell your excess loot. It is a great game but the multiplayer is a very big letdown.

9/10

The Nintendo DSi XL is the latest console to hit the market with a large 4.2" screen (93% larger than the DS Lite) with wider viewing with uninterrupted viewing for all ages, includes a longer stylus as well as a touch pen for use in the home, also includes pre-loaded software with all the capabilities of the DSi with camera and the DSiWear.

Top 5 iTunes Apps

By Entertainment Crew

Exactly like Facebook Farm Ville, apart from the planting of Zombies and invading other farms. It is a very fun game.

It is very familiar to the DS version returning to the old roots of the first GTA by going to bird's eye view.

It is a kind of remake of Neversofts Guitar Hero only with three notes instead of five.

It is a really good game but the story is kind of a letdown and it is very quick to play.

Is a first person shooter, the co-op is much more fun than the single player because you can verse other people through the internet. Pro isn't as good as the Co-op version but the game play is good.
