In Melbourne

Fame

Fame is a theatre production following 1980's Fame movie and television series. Fame tells the story of a group of students at a performing arts school in New York. The film inspired many worldwide and 2010's production is hoping to do the same. The show will be running every Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday until the 13th of June so be sure to buy your tickets. For more details and ticket prices visit www.fame.com.au

National Art Gallery of Victoria

Make some free time this weekend to visit the National Art Gallery of Victoria in Federation Square. There are heaps of wonderful art pieces for the whole family to enjoy. The NGV is a great family day out and features paintings that will fascinate the whole family! On now until the 4th July you can go see Rupert Bunny: Artist In Paris, one of the finest collections. Entry into the gallery is free but this exhibition costs extra, for prices go to www.ngv.vic.gov.au then click the orange box on the home page that says Exhibitions at: The Ian Potter Centre NGV Australia. It's open daily from 10am-5pm, and it is closed on Mondays.

Eureka Sky Deck

The Eureka Sky Deck allows you to view Melbourne from over 300 metres above the ground, letting you view Melbourne the most beautiful angle possible with the full protection of thick glass walls. Or even better, you can have 'The Edge' experience, where you are suspended in a glass box, 3 metres out from the building. You can even have a photo taken of you to keep as a souvenir! Eureka Sky Deck is located right in the heart of Melbourne in South Bank. For prices and more information visit www.eurekaskydeck.com.au!

Bog Snorkelling

Bog Snorkelling is an event that consists a number of competitors completing two consecutive lengths of 50m water filled trench cut through a peat bog, in the shortest time possible. Competitors must wear snorkels and flippers, and complete the course without using conventional swimming strokes, relying on flipper power alone. Wet suits are not compulsory, but are usually worn. Bog Snorkelling was started in 1976 in Wales, United Kingdom.

Rules:

- You must wear snorkels, Goggles and flippers at all time.
- Wet suits are not compulsory but you may still wear them.
- You must travel 50 m.
- Competitors must complete the course with conventional swimming strokes.
- Shortest time out of all contestants wins.

Elephant Polo

Elephant Polo is a form of polo played while riding on elephants. This is played in Nepal, Sri Lanka, Rajasthan (India) and Thailand.

Equipment consists of a standard polo ball and six to nine foot cane (similar to bamboo) sticks with a polo mallet head on the end. Although Elephant polo was first played in India at the beginning of the twentieth century, the modern game originated in Meghali. Elephant polo in Nepal and Thailand is played under the auspices of the world Elephant Polo Association.

Rules:

- Two people ride each elephant.
- The elephants are steered by mahouts.
- The pitch is three quarters of the length of a standard polo pitch.
- The game consists of 10 minute quarters.
- All players that are not taking the hit must be 15 metres away.
- There are no restrictions of size in elephant or age.
- Team consists of 4 elephants.
- If a player falls off his elephant the game will be stopped.
- Drivers must wear head gear in form of the polo tradition.
- Hooking your opponents stick counts as a personal foul.
- There must be a goal judge at each goal.
- There is one senior umpire.

Round Report:

Well, what a season we've have this year. The Barclays Premier League has come to an end with Chelsea taking home the title. Runners up Man Utd miss out by only one point. Chelsea had a magnificent win to end the season with an 8-0 win over Wigan

Portsmouth has finished the season at the bottom of the ladder with only 19 points. This would've to be the most embarrassing team in the E.P.L

Congratulations to Chelsea for taking out the title. Hopefully this continue into next season and seasons to come.

Rugby League By Alex Nasteski

Melbourne fullback Billy Slater is free to play in Saturday's NRL clash with Canberra after entering an early guilty plea to a dangerous contact charge.

The Test fullback received a grade one charge for an awkward feet-first tackle that led to a penalty try in Sunday's 36-14 loss to Brisbane at AAMI Park.

Slater was attempting to stop Broncos winger Jharal Yow Yeh scoring in the corner and was placed on report.

The Melbourne Storm's heart has stopped pumping and that could spell embarrassment for the rest of the NRL season, says the man who picked up the pieces after the Bulldogs' salary cap scandal, Steve Mortimer.

The Storm's crushing 36-14 loss to Brisbane at what was meant to be a celebration of the opening of their new Stadium, AAMI Park, on Sunday caused coach Craig Bellamy to declare his side's points-less season wasn't all over.

ALBUMS

MGMT

MGMT have released a new album “Congratulations” after the main singer Andrew VanWyngarden asks himself if he would ever know if the album would ever be a great success but he sticks to his gut and makes the second album which had more of an instrumental feeling and said he would like to get more into the spiritual things than love. Also he says that he wants to make his music more funky and stylish with more effects and creative ideas. MGMT has tried making their songs more relaxing and have more meaning to things they play about.

The John Butler Trio

The John Butler Trio’s new album “One Way Road” has made a massive hit on the charts killing the top 10 for 3 weeks straight. The band has gone for a summer rock that has a good rhythm to it. The John Butler Trio has tried going for the 60’s theme and its sounds great.

Powderfinger

The band Powderfinger has released the dates in Brisbane, Sydney, Melbourne, Adelaide, Perth and Cairns for their farewell Sunsets tour. The tickets were sold in all the cities in minutes. The Brisbane bands had been together for 20 years and after they split the fans were shocked. They had made their print in the world’s music and might have changed some people’s lives.

SINGLES

Ke$ha

Ke$ha has released her new single from her debut album, “Animal” also known as every bad girl’s sleepover soundtrack-”Your Love Is My Drug” Also she has released 2 songs “Blah Blah Blah” and “Tik Tok” they have made a massive hit in the charts and will get bigger.

Usher

Usher has released his new album “OMG” featuring Will.I.Am. The song has killed the charts making it to the top 10 in less than a week. Usher’s R&B has hit the clubs in a different sense and the people love it.
